

Job Posting/Advertisement Regional Organizer Position

The Western Organization of Resource Councils (WORC) is a regional network of grassroots community organizations that include 12,700 members and 39 local chapters. WORC helps its member groups succeed by providing training and coordinating issue work.

We are seeking a regional organizer who is curious, confident, well-organized, a strategic thinker, and driven by a vision of a better world. The regional organizer will undertake focused, effective, and comprehensive regional issue campaigns. It requires a close working relationship with WORC's eight member groups, and a good set of problem solving skills.

The position is full-time and preferably based in our Billings, Montana office. Our LEED platinum certified building is a showcase of green building strategies and technologies, and a great place to work.

This satisfying and challenging job will see you:

- Planning and running regional issue campaigns in close partnership with WORC's member groups,
- Providing capacity building assistance to the member groups as part of a total team effort,
- Developing and honing your skills as a competent and confident group facilitator, and
- Learning the art and science of community organizing through hands-on experience.

We are looking for a mature, responsible individual who:

- Enjoys working with and developing strong relationships with people,
- Excels at listening to, communicating with and bringing out the best in others,
- Has experience running issue campaigns that include and engage grassroots leaders to win concrete policy reforms, and
- Has experience effectively engaging in national coalitions.

This is a full-time position. Competitive salary range is based on a nonprofit scale and is commensurate with qualifications and experience. The position will remain open until filled, but applications are encouraged by November 1, 2016. The target date for work to begin is January 1, 2017.

If you are someone who encompasses all of the above qualities and more, apply now by sending a resume, cover letter, short writing sample and three references to John Smillie, WORC Executive Director, at billings@worc.org.

WORC is an equal opportunity employer. For more information about WORC visit our web site at www.worc.org.
